

NEW AWARD FOR CATTLEMEN

Announcing a New Award for Commercial Cattlemen 2024 Pennsylvania Young Cattlemen's Beef Award

Sponsored by the American Angus Foundation in conjunction with PA Angus Association from a generous anonymous donation!

Who is this for: The successful applicant will be someone with a small or large beef herd of any breed or cross, or is involved in some type of operation that furthers the beef industry in PA. This can include a feedlot, meat marketing operation of any shape or size, semen sales company, etc. You may only win this award once. Awardee may be visited by a member of the judges committee one year after receiving the award to see progress being made by the individual.

Who is eligible: Any young producer who is age 18 to 25 and has graduated high school or obtained their GED.

How to apply: Complete the award application that will be found on the PA Angus Association website beginning June 1 and submit by the deadline date.

When to apply: Applications will be accepted between June 1 and August 1. Applications will be judged by cattle producers and a $1000.00 award will be given to the successful applicant. Award will be given at a cattle function chosen by the committee the fall of 2024 depending on the location of the award winner.

Where to submit: All completed applications should be submitted via email to the email listed below. Questions can also be submitted via the email. If an applicant does not utilize a computer, they can request an application by calling Chris Jeffcoat, Secretary, at 717-476-1496. The application will then need to be submitted via USPS, UPS, or Fed Ex with a post mark date of August 1, 2024.
